Replacement Players -- Replacement moves are needed by March 20 for RUS (PFC), GER
(PLC), FRA (PME), ITA (PNC), TUR (PCC), FRA (PPC), ENG (PQC), in case Muhlhauser fails to respond by that date. Persons asking to serve as replacement players include Edi Birsan, Dave Bischoff, Margaret Gemignani, Bob Johnson, Hal Naus, and George Schelz. Our patience is wearing thin with players who repeatedly miss moves, so beware all you persons with whom move-missing is becoming a habit -- if you aren't interested enough to get your moves in, there are six people listed above who would be only too happy to take over your position. A word to the wise, and all that....

The Gamesmaster -- For all games, Don Miller, 12315 Judson Rd., Wheaton, Md., 20906
(ph. 301-933-5417; call only between 8 & 10 p.m. EST on weekdays except Fri.).

The "House-Rules" -- As published in DIPLOMANIA #18; see also DPBA #20 re deadlines.

Miscellaneous -- Sorry about the delay in getting this issue out, but we have been away on two business trips the past several days. ##### Deadline date is date of receipt -- and it makes no difference how long it takes us to publish the 'zine after a deadline -- this is for your protection, remember? ##### FINAL Spring deadlines are always set two weeks after WINTER build/removal deadline -- however, if any player in any game should need more time for SPRING moves, he must write the GM before the stated deadline requesting an extension, which will be granted. Maximum between deadlines will be 4 weeks. ##### HYPERECONOMIC rules completed (finally!), so DPMA
#19/20 should be out shortly, as will AUX ARMES! #1. DIPLOMANIA is still 10/$1.50,
but price may go up shortly. DPMA #19/20 will be 40¢. DLM

Propaganda --

Ankara -- The Turkish government-in-exile announces a shakeup of command in the executive branch. The entire government will be eliminated with the exception of the computer specialist. Due to Turkey's being fifty years ahead of its time in this field, this dramatic new move is possible.

Seriously, people, the only reason I took this hopeless game was to test out a computer idea on it. All sets of moves being slightly reasonable or better will be programmed into the computer in terms of a game-matrix. The solution as provided by the computer will determine the Turkish forces' actions. As an incentive for the two leading players (and, for that matter, the two weakest ones, too) to exercise negotiations with Turkey (which is vital to the test of my idea), all suggested moves, no matter how ridiculous, will be considered by the computer. Also, to aid England and Italy in their planning, the computer is a very short-sighted analyst, looking forward only to the next Winter season.

FINAL Deadline for SPRING, 1910 moves -- Noon, Wed., March 20.

Propaganda --

Bonn: Temporary capital -- London: Why did you attack me? I wanted you to attack Russia. With all that strength up in Scandinavia, if I'm destroyed he will not shift his attacks to Syria. And who ever gave that idiot NSG, France is hopefully a friend? Naus, I appeal to your better judgement, you should not assault me. This really surprised me.

Bonn -- Constantinople: That is really odd, one unit in Rumania in all those open spaces. HMMMMMMMM?????!!!!

Constantinople -- The increasing of the Russian Black Sea fleet is looked upon with the greatest mistrust by powerful individuals here. The Sultan is confident war with the Czar will not come, but he is worried by the latter's aggressive actions. The Sultan can see no use for the increase in that fleet, and asks the Czar to respect our treaty to demilitarize the Black Sea. Yet, he promises swift retribution for all who try to make mockery of his word of honor.

Constantinople -- The Sultan of Turkey, Ottoman Emperor Regal, formally withdraws diplomatic recognition from the Austro-Hungarian Empire. He recognizes Ronald I, King of Italy, as Emperor of Austria and proclaims himself King of Hungary. In addition, he offers a beautiful Ottoman princess as wife and a palace in Smyrna to the ex-Emperor if he should agree to make peace.

Russia -- The Czar wishes to continue his efforts in the north. In view of some lack of trust, mutual support will insure the safety of his southern border.

FINAL Deadline for SPRING, 1903 moves -- Noon, Wed., March 20.

Propaganda --

Constantinople -- Someone should have written.

England -- France: Rod, if you can, Piedmont is yours; we will take the long route.

England -- Germany: It's wonderful fishing this season on the Barents Sea.

Paris -- Open Letter: 1. As can be seen France desires only peace and is not making territorial claims against any established country. 2. Due to a recent shift in the cabinet (an earthquake, really) all mailing addresses were inadvertently lost and the current government requests that addresses be sent.

Paris -- Austria-Hungary: A provisional yes, if you are thinking of the north. But we must confer further, at the Celestial Chamber, Paris.

NSG -- Anyone wishing changes in my policy or further information on these moves, write to me.

NSG -- Germany: You need a Bismark before you can call yourself a country.

NSG -- Turkey: The Church will be re-united soon.

Propaganda --

Germany -- The German government formally denounces the imperialistic war-mongering British Monarchy for its tyrannical rule over its captive subjects.

Germany -- World: The country of Germany wants PEACE!! ( - a piece of France, a piece of England, a piece of Russia, a piece of... - )

London -- Europe: We deny whatever lies our black southeastern neighbor has said against our great and beautiful country, and wish to state at this time that England is not and never will be involved in any entangling alliances or agreements with the accursed Germans. Our government disapproves, has disapproved, and always will disapprove of the savage policies of those uncivilized barbarians.

NSG -- Beware the Black Hordes of Intoxicated Huns.

NSG -- Very interesting...

NSG -- News Flash: Because of the fact that the "country" of Russia has ignored generous diplomatic overtures made by the British diplomat, England today declared war on Russia and swore that British armies would be in St. Petersburg by Fall, 1903.

GM Note -- We regret that, because of space limitations, we must omit from this issue propaganda from "NSG", "Varrick", "Trondheim", and "Oslo". This propaganda will appear in DPBA #22.
